Introducing the 24 Days of Stationery Advent Calendar

Our luxury, personalised advent calendar is back after its sell-out success last year with a brand new bold and playful design. This contemporary and joyous advent calendar has been designed to capture the celebratory mood of Christmas 2021, and is filled with empowering new contents to spark creativity and optimism.

the design

Bold and playful, this year's design has been influenced by the creativity of Matisse and his cut-out creations. Distinctive and vibrant, this beautiful, limited edition advent calendar is not to be missed.

the contents

24 irresistible items of stationery are waiting to be discovered each day inside the enticing foil embossed boxes that have been designed to look like a row of colourful books on a shelf. From a personalised notebook to a 2022 calendar, a set of correspondence cards, luxury pens, a gold ruler, and an assortment of chic paper goods, each day offers something different to be revealed and enjoyed.

the packaging

This unique advent calendar has been created with Martha Brook's 'love our planet' ethos in mind. The packaging has been partially made from disposable coffee cups and is 100% recyclable with no plastics. However, it is far too lovely to recycle! So, with the advent calendar launch, we will be releasing a guide to the myriad of different ways the foil embossed boxes can be reused.

The 24 Days of Stationery Advent Calendar is priced at £89 and will be available to order from www.marthabrook.com on 23rd September 2021.
