

Feminist Oracles

Blaze a trail with advice from 50 iconic women

Charlotte Jansen, illustrations by Laura Callaghan

Feminist Oracles, by Charlotte Jansen, illustrated by Laura Callaghan and published by Laurence King in February 2021, is an entertaining and informative set of cards featuring fifty of the world's most iconic women and their leading attributes.

Be guided and motivated by the world's most inspiring women with this creative set of oracle cards. Need advice on breaking the glass ceiling? Find out what Gloria Steinem would do. Juggling family and career? Ask Jacinda Ardern. Want to affect societal change? Angela Davis is at hand. Pick a card and let 50 feminist gurus guide you through any dilemma.

Feminist Oracles features stunning portraits by Laura Callaghan and a fascinating accompanying booklet, written by Charlotte Jansen in which you can learn more about each icon.

Available at laurenceking.com

23 Feb 2021

Gift Cards 9781786278081
£14.99

Charlotte Jansen is a British Sri Lankan freelance writer, curator and Editor-at-Large at Elephant Magazine. She contributes to The Guardian, Dazed & Confused, AnOther magazine, Wallpaper*, Artsy and Contemporary Art Review LA. Girl on Girl was her first book which looked at recent female photography and its function in our lives today.

Instagram account: @omfgnoway

Laura Callaghan is an Irish illustrator whose work is hand-drawn using a mixture of watercolour, Indian ink and isograph pen. Her clients include Tate, Adidas and MTV. She is the illustrator of Find Frida (Laurence King Publishing, 2020).

Instagram account: @lauracallaghanillustration

