SPODE LAUNCHES BRAND NEW COLLECTION – CREATURES OF CURIOSITY

Combining its 250 years of heritage and ceramic expertise, Spode is marking the start of a brand-new era with a stunning homeware and gift collection, Creatures of Curiosity.

Never a brand to shy away from innovation, from the days when Josiah Spode first introduced Blue Italian to the market, Creatures of Curiosity embodies the attention to detail and quality Spode has become synonymous with.

Created by the in-house design team at Spode, Creatures of Curiosity is inspired by the past while embracing current trends.

Bringing together on-trend animal prints, beautifully drawn florals and exotic insects and animals such as butterflies and snakes, the collection features tableware, glassware, giftware, soft furnishings and scents for the home.

An elegant teapot sits centre stage with a choice of two teacups (fluted and coupe) in four different pattern combinations, mugs, cake plates, cream jug, sugar bowl, cake slice and three-tier cake stand completing the range. Crafted from fine china, pieces within the collection have been accented with 22 carat gold and feature elements that were originally hand painted, further reinforcing Spode's design expertise.
